

Memorandum of Understanding(MoU)
BETWEEN
Japan Network Information Center
AND
Taiwan Network Information Center

APRIL 10, 2025

This MoU is made as of April 10, 2025, by and between Japan Network Information Center (“JPNIC”) and Taiwan Network Information Center (“TWNIC”), each referred to individually as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Parties recognize the need for mutual cooperation to ensure the stable operation of the Internet in the Asia-Pacific region;

WHEREAS, the Parties seek to establish a formal and mutually beneficial cooperative framework;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual interests of the Parties, the Parties agree to the following:

1. Base Activities for MoU

The Parties agree to engage in periodic meetings, held annually and alternately hosted by each Party. These meetings will facilitate the exchange of recent developments and explore further opportunities for cooperation, laying the groundwork for the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) at the President level at each Party.

2. Areas of Potential Cooperation

The Parties will explore cooperation in the following areas:

- National Internet Registry operations
- Promotion of IPv6 and Internet security improvements, including RPKI& DMARC
- Affairs pertaining APNIC membership and community activities
- Internet governance with a focus on global Internet infrastructure coordination
- Addressing abuses on the internet, including Trusted Notifier Mechanism

3. Further Agreements

Upon mutual agreement, the Parties may enter into additional agreements to formalize specific cooperative activities.

4. Duration and Renewal

The tasks (as described above) to be carried out by the Parties shall begin at the date of this declaration and this MoU shall be renewed automatically for successive periods of two (2) years each, unless terminated by either Party giving written notice of non-renewal at least three (3) months prior to the last day of the then current term to the other Party.
